

Job Title

Auditorium Campus Pastor | The Meeting House, Carlisle

Job Summary

The Auditorium Campus Pastor will provide leadership, connections, discipleship, and care for the Auditorium community of The Meeting House. This full-time position will require a firm grasp of the vision and priorities of TMH, a proven track record of building teams, shepherding congregants, as well as leading and collaborating with other TMH staff and volunteers.

Responsibilities

Pastor the Auditorium Campus:

- Primary shaper of culture of welcome, values, and mission of TMH.
- Working with other staff to assure Sunday morning services are creatively planned.
- Lead venue staff: monthly campus meetings and bi-weekly/monthly one-on-ones.
- Preach within the rhythms of the team preaching model.
- Establish and Lead a venue specific leadership group.
- Oversee the holistic discipleship opportunities of the auditorium campus.

Facilitate Connections with church-wide ministry:

- Collaborate and maintain regular communication with the Lead Pastor, Campus Pastors, and other staff to support TMH-wide and venue-specific ministry efforts.
- Connect Auditorium members and attenders with TMH ministries and opportunities for service to the campus.
- Execute other duties assigned by the Lead Pastor depending on gifts, capacity and passions of the campus pastor and the needs of TMH.

Provide ongoing care for Auditorium community:

- Ensure the development and continued improvement of care ministries to serve the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of members/attenders, including routine and emergency hospital visitation.
- Appropriately and expediently respond to and/or follow-up on crisis situations; participate in TMH on-call pastoral rotation; provide counsel and facilitate care for Auditorium community members in times of crisis.

Requirements

Education/Experience:

- 5+ years pastoral experience and/or other vocational church ministry, including preaching/teaching and oversight of staff/volunteers and experience with care-related ministry
- Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or seminary
- Belief in Anabaptist thought on Jesus, Scripture, two-kingdom theology, the peace position and community, as well as the Core Values and Articles of Faith and Doctrine of the Brethren in Christ U.S.
- Credentialed (or willing to be) by the Brethren in Christ U.S.
- Computer proficiency; able to relate to and participate in social media; comfortable using email and other web-based systems for inter-office communications

Personal Traits:

- You lead a life of faithfulness and integrity, representing Christ and His church well in the community at-large.
- People are drawn to you; you're an empathetic listener and a clear communicator.
- You're self-motivated and able to work independently while also being able to function cooperatively as a member of a team while maintaining an attitude of flexibility and creativity with a tolerance for ambiguity.
- Your example cultivates a positive spirit throughout the church family; you draw out the best in others, inspiring them to serve with joy and excellence.
- You are committed to the mission, vision, and values of The Meeting House.
